SAINT LEDGER, by Eclipse, and full brother to Ariel, Lance and O'Kelly, will make his next season in Virginia, at my stable, Tree Hill, two miles below Richmond. Particulars will appear in his bills and advertisement in due time. JOHN P. WHITE. Tree Hill Jan. 97

MARGRAVE, winner of the great St. Ledger Stakes.

THE celebrated Race Hoise and Stallion, imported Margrave, the best Horse of his year, the best ored and the best son of Muley, the sire of Leviathan, whose colls are running so well in the West, will stand the present season at my stable. Spring Grove, Hanover county, Va., 18 miles North of the city of Richmond, 12 miles West of Hanover Court-House, and 3 miles of Col. C. P. Goodall's Tavern, at 875 the season and $120 to insure a mare to be in foal, to be paid as soon as a scertained to be so, or patted with, and $1 to the groom in every case. Mares will be well fed for 37.12 cents per day, and every care, attention and accommodation will be bestowed on Mares with foals, feeling, and barren Mares, but I will not be responsible for accidents or escapes. Servents board and good and day, and every care, attention and accommodation will be bestowed on Mures with fools, fooling, and barren Mares; but I will not be responsible for accidents or escapes. Servents' beard and good and extensive pastures will be furnished without charge.

Margrave is a rich dark cheenut, without white, fully 5 feet 4 inches high, (no mistake) of misterly size and excellent proportions, of great strength, substance and power, and with more bone than any thorough bred liferse in America; and beauty enough to satisfy the most lastidious observer. He has a sound constitution, fine action, excellent temper, and is a very sure fool-getter, and his colts are superior to any ever dropped in the region where he has cuvered, and excelled by none in the United States.

Margrave was considered by all good judges, by far the best Horse of his year, both for speed and stentings; and being a Horse of such uncommon bone and size, and such transcendant power, he will propagate a noble stock for our long distancts, being descended from the best four mile stock. For this purpose, a better pedigree cannot be found in the whole English Stad Book.

He won the Criterion Stakes, 36 subscribers, at New Market and run a good second for the Clearwell Stakes, 40 subscribers, after a very and start, and being crowded out at the same place—be wen the Stockhirks Stakes, the great Stankhirks at the Criterion Stakes and Stakes and place—be wen the Stockhirks Stakes, the great Stankhirks at the Criterion Stakes and Stakes and place—be wen the Stockhirks Stakes, the great Stankhirks at the Criterion Stakes and the content of the Criterion Stakes and Stakes and place—be wen the Stockhirks Stakes, the great Stankhirks at the Criterion Stakes and Stakes.

He won the Criterion Stakes, 36 subcribers, at New Market and flux a good second for the Clearwell Stakes, 40 subscribers, after a very and start, and being crowded out at the same place—be wen the Stockbridge Stakes, the great St. Ledger, 73 subscribers, the Gascines Stakes, 11 subscribers, carrying 4 lbs extra; at Doneaster, the Grand Duke Michael, 15 subscribers, at New Market, hesides other nees. He started for the Derby Stakes, 101 subscribers, which all allow he could have won with ease, if he had not been compremised to another Fores in the same stable. The English Sporting Magazines say: "The Derby was remarkable for the immense pace." Margrave was not made use of, and had all been running to win. Margrave would have been first and Beiram second." Again: "Mergrave would have been first and Beiram second." Again: "Mergrave would have been first and Beiram second." Again: "Mergrave would have been first and Beiram second." Again the wonthe St. Ledger and ought to have won the Derby, a feat never performed since the year 1800.
"But of this I am satisfied, that whatever Flying Childers did bona fide, could be done by our Stallious Prism and Margrave, provided they were not trained until 5 or 6 years old."

[Sport. Mag. No. 6, p. 88.

Margrave's career was very brilliant on the turf, "having won three great events, and travelled 130 miles in a fortaight, without any apparent effect on him; considering the stoutness of Margrave.

any apparent effect on him; considering the stoutness of Margrave, with his great stride, he appears to us better adapted to a distance." He met and conquered all the best horses of his year .- (Sporting Magazine.)

Margrave was got by Muley, a son of Orvitle (winner Margrave was got by Muley, a son of Orville (winner of the St. Ledger, and a capital Stallian, having covered at 52L., (or $250.) out of Eleanor, (winner of both Derby and Oaks, the only time it has been done.) the best mare of her time, and own sister to Cressida, dam of Priam and Julis, dam of Phantom. Orville got Emiliae, winner of the Derby, now covering at $255, and sire of Priam and Plenipo, winners of the Derby. Oxygen, winner of the Oaks, Mango, winner of the St. Ledger, 1837, Sarpedon and many other good ones. Muley got Vespa, winner of the Oaks, Leviathan, imp. Muley, Molech and many others. och and many others.

His dam by Election, winner of the Derby, and a first rate four mile Horse, a son of Gohanna, the best Horse at any distance of his day, and equal as a Stallion to day of day age; his granddam, Fan Helen, by Hambletonian, who was invincible any distance; Heler by Delpini; Rosaland by Phenomenon; Atalanta by Matchem, Lass of the Mill by Oronoko; Traveller; Miss Makeless; Brimmer: Dicky Pearson; Burton's Barb Mare. This pedigree is the essence of goodness and perfection, rich and fashionable, and remarkable for the stoutness and unfinching bottom of all its crosses, they being of the hard-bottomed four mile sort. Priam, Margrave and Luxberough are all descendants from the same mare, and very wear akin; and so are langar, sire of Elis, winner of the St. Ledger, Levinthan, and many others of the highest character and renown. The two first Horses Langar, sire of Elis, winner of the St. Deuge-others of the highest character and renown. others of the highest character and renown. The two first Horses are not excelled by any in the world in pedigree and high claims to excellence; but farther proofs and more particulars will be given in my handbills. It is only necessary for those who wish to rear the stock, to see Margrave. I do assure the public, he is the stoutest imported Horse I have ever seen, and of fine appearance. In short, I like him better than any of the importation.

Commission, and Forwarding Business in the City of Richmond, under the firm of Hill, Moore & Co. They have taken the large new brick building on the South side of the Basin, within a few feet of the most commodious landing for boats. Prompt attention will be given to the sale and purchase of produce and manufactures, and to every other description of business in their line confided to their trust. The proximity of their store house to the Basin, will save to their patrons the charge of drayage, which is a considerable item on heavy articles when stored or forwarded from a situation distant from the boat landing. They are now erecting a building which will be com pleted in 10 days at Westham, which will be the termination of the canal for the next 5 or 6 months, and con nigh, of fine bone and abundant muscle - a horse of beautiful action, great strength, and most excellent and correct proportions. The English Sporting Magazine re-marks-"He is large where strength is wanted, and small where that quality is perfection." He was allowed to have united bottom and speed in a most eminent de gree, and to have at less equalled any horse of uncient or modern times on the English turf, and his colts are fully maintaining "the family honors."

He was got by Tramp, sire of Lottery, Barefoot, and

VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE.

SKETCH OF THE ACTS.

114 An act amending the statute of jeolails; provides that all judgments, (whether entered as office judgments or upon verdicts after writs of enquiry for damages,) rendered in any Circuit Superior Court for default of appearance, shall be held within the provisions of the 103d section of the act of 1819, for limitation of actions, for preventing frivolous and vexatious suits, &c., as fully as if such judgments had been named therein, reserving the power to the Court or to any Judge of the General Court in vacation, to award a writ of er for to such judgment where any order has been illegally taken or entered at rules, and where the same would have been set aside upon motion at the term next after such entry; or in cases of such variance between the writ and declaration, as would be ground for reversal of the judgment in the Court of Appeals; and upon the trial of such writ to make such order togorrest the proceedings at rules, or to render such judgments as might have been rendered by the Court of Appeals. The act also prescribes that in all actions on contracts against two or more defendants, if one or more of them shall be acquitted or discharged by the verdict of a jury or other wise, the plaintiff may proceed to judgment against the other defendant, but the last mentioned party shall be entitled to his costs of the plaintiff.
